9.6 Notwithstanding anything else contained herein and in addition thereto, it is recorded that, should a student contravene the code of conduct (as published on www.aie.ac) or any other rules applicable to any specific study programme communicated to the student from time to time, this shall be regarded as a material and serious breach of the agreement and then AIE shall be entitled to immediately block and deny the student any further access to any campus, facility, platform, programme and, at the election of AIE, such student's registration and enrollment for the remainder of the programme shall immediately be suspended. Such suspension shall be immediate, pending an internal disciplinary investigation and process to be conducted promptly and fairly by AIE, giving the student reasonable opportunity to present his/her case on a method and platform as decided by AIE. Should AIE subsequent to the disciplinary process conclude that the conduct of the student justifies permanent expulsion then this will be so communicated to the student and his/her enrollment shall be terminated. In this event, the student shall not receive any refund of payments. Should AIE, however, subsequent to the disciplinary process conclude that, although the student was guilty of misconduct, permanent expulsion and termination are not justified, then they may implement such steps as they in their discretion deem reasonable. This shall include re-admitting the student to the programme. No time so missed shall be allowed to be redone or repeated and no discount or refund shall be allowed because the reason for the initial suspension was
